Everything's possible

Regina Pedroso, 47, born in Santo Tirso and Raquel Machado, 27 years old, born in Maia, followed Antonio Variações's motto "Change your life if you don't feel satisfied" and were contemplated with a new smile in TVI's television show "Você na TV", in the content "Portugal a Sorrir".

In the first case, the problems began in childhood, in the second, it began in adolescence and deteriorated over the years. Economic difficulties and lack of self-esteem seemed to condemn both their lives to a sad existence. But everything changed... and they both regained their smile.
